ANNOUNCEMENTS

Burnham, eye specialist, 265 Main St.
Hours, one to six. Telephone 151-2.
Charles S. Peckham, for a number of years with Allen, Bacon & Co., has accepted a position with Amour & Co., and will begin in his new position Monday morning. He is to have charge of the butter department.

BREED THEATER.

Breed theater will show one of the most unusual western features that it has presented in some time. It is entitled Billy's Stratagem, and deals with frontier life with all its vicissitudes and pleasures. It is a story of a cowboy and a girl, and introduces the little juvenile favorite who plays so many prominent parts in all the big Biograph productions.

The Floral Parade at San Diego, Cal., is another educational and scenic feature, which the breed is making a specialty of, and the opening scenes show several thousand jacks from the United States warship parading in their white uniforms. The passing of the sailors is preceded by a number of beautiful girls, who are seen throwing roses in the jacket pathway.
The final scenes show the battle of the roses, which is a story of a beautiful girl, who is loved by two different men, and the story is told by the officers of the warships.

An all feature bill of more than ordinary merit will grace the boards at this theatre for the first three days of next week, and will be headed by the Biograph production, excellent harmony singers. These four songs men come to Norwich with a reputation of high standard, which has been gained in New York city and throughout New England. Another feature act which will be on this same bill is Gordon and Warren, presenting their own comedy playlet of everyday life, entitled "The Back to Mother." This original comedy sketch develops natural and easily recognized situations of the home life of a newly married couple, and is a gem of the kind which is more important, is a well written, cleverly acted playlet and full of good wholesome comedy.

A clever artist is Leon Vennet, who will impersonate several well known characters of the American stage today, and will no doubt please all who hear him.
The Battle of the Red Men, No. 3 of the Bison series, will be shown on Monday and Tuesday next week, and will surely meet with much success as No. 1 and 2 did. There are 500 real Indians and not one white man in this picture.

POLIS.

Entertainment of the finest type and education by the most enjoyable method combine to make the program at Polis today. Five splendid subjects presented in new films and possibly without flicker or bluish, persons desiring to see the best in motion pictures will find them here. The Carnegie Brothers in perhaps the most fascinating subject in today's bill, but for those who prefer good comedy, the Chocolate Revue, featuring the wonderful child actress, Aida De-Garde, will be perhaps more pleasing.
The X-Ray film is exceedingly interesting and of great technical value to both young and old, as this is a subject with which but few are familiar.
The utmost care is taken constantly to keep the entertainment at a high standard of refined excellence and constant attention is given by a competent house force to the health and comfort of patrons.

The Kinemascope is the latest development in moving picture reproduction, faithfully and accurately presents all the varied beauties and of nature. It gives all the gorgeous colors for which the photographer has raved and ceaselessly yearned, and strives to make the picture a living image as formed by a lens. As an amusement in New York city it has no equal in popularity and on February 14, 1912, received a total of five million performances in that city. They were first introduced at the Herald Square theater, and soon two other leading Broadway theaters, the Majestic and the Daly's, opened their doors to the new attraction. Thus Kinemascope nightly filled three of the best theaters in the country to capacity at regular prices.

The colors are produced entirely by natural color photography. Every event of the day is faithfully reproduced, and the color is so perfect that the coronation of King George V. and Queen Mary of England will be shown. The exhibition to be given here on Saturday afternoon and evening will be identical to that given in New York and London. The programme occupies over two hours and includes the following groups of scenes: 1. Hamble Through London.
Drive to the Crystal Palace. 2. Unveiling of Victoria Memorial. 3. Review of Troops. 4. Coronation Investiture at Windsor. 5. Procession of the King and Queen. 6. Indian Camp. 7. Royal Barracks. 8. Royal Progress Through London. 9. Naval Review. 10. Floral Display.

Tickets are on sale at the Y. M. C.
A. and the stores or they can be purchased at the entrance. Prices are 25 cents for matinee and 50 cents for
